DEDICATION

To our beloved school, Fair Oaks, which has had a great positive influence in intergrating our personalities, molding our diverse characters, planning our vocations, and preparing us to be the leaders of tommorrow, We, the Senior Class of 1950 respectfully dedicate this book as a symbol of our appreciation. It is our most cherished hope that we shall always discharge our responsibilities in such a way that our school may be justly, proud of us and the community at large may profit thereby.

PROPHECY

We, the SENIOR CLASS of 1950, finally find ourselves in the year of 1960, just ten years from the time of our graduation ceremonies. As I, MARY (SAYERS) MURPHY, stroll down the sidewalk in Fair Oaks, (now a thriving metropolis of 15,000) whom should I chance to meet, but Mr. and Mrs. LIGHTEL WHITAKER. I read in the paper the other day that LIGHTEL had just put the finishing touches on his perpetual motion machine. His wife, (DOROTHY GILMORE) has organized a baby sitter's club, which seems to be very successful. I had time to chat only a few minutes, as I had to meet my husband, RAY MURPHY, for dinner at the Lunchtimer's Cafe, operated by RITA SAYERS. We were certainly surprised when one of the waitresses was FRANCES BELL. FRANCES told us that her sister, ROSEMARIE BELL and PEARL MYRES were in an all-girl's orchestra in San Diego, California.

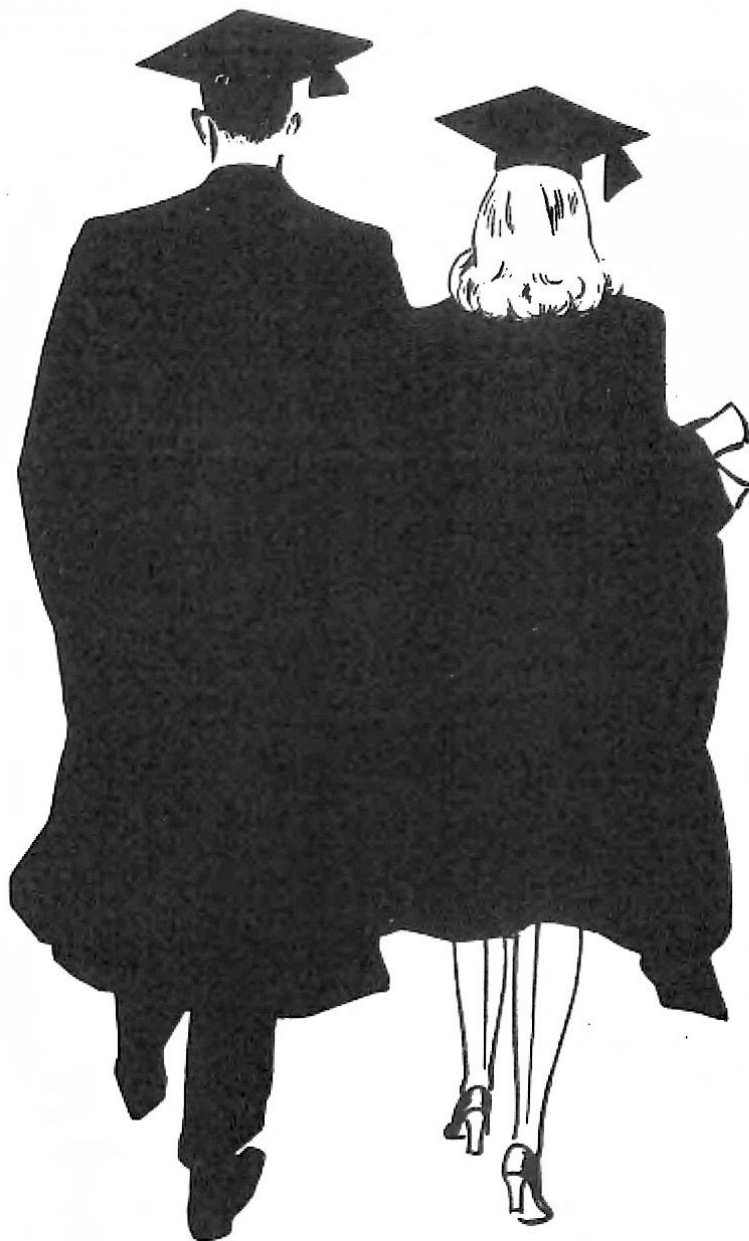

After dinner was over, we sat back in our chairs and enjoyed a good television show. We saw the new "Ladies Remain Standing" show, starring ED JANOSOV and JOE MAGEE as masters-of-ceremony, better known as the "Corny Twosome". The show was sponsored by Hotsy-Totsy Baby Shoes, made by the CALVIN HUFFMAN MANUFACTURING COMPANY. When the show was over, we left the Cafe as my husband had to get back to his law office. Being there, I went in to chat with MARLENE TORBET, one of his most capable secretaries.

I left my husband's office and hurried on to have some teeth pulled at DR. KARL PATZSCHKE'S dental office. While I was there JOANNE (MYERS) BRUSNAHAN came in to get her upper plate fixed because her little son had kicked her in the mouth. JOANNE told me that FRAN MATTOCKS and JOYCE DUNN are operating an asylum for boy-crazy girls out in Butte, Montana.

I left the dentist's office, and hurried on to pick up a suit I had cleaned at ZEENAT KNAPP'S SURE-KLEAN LAUNDRY. We were both very surprised to hear on the radio that PAUL SCHULTZ has just been elected governor of the State of Indiana.

Now I must go home and get supper for my husband and the twins. Tonight we are going to see the play to be given by the Seniors of 1960. See you later.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1946, twenty-one freshmen entered high school. The officers we elected were: Clarence Teske, president; Dorothy Gilmore, vice-president; Joyce Dunn, secretary-treasurer. After initiation we became full-fledged members of Fair Oaks High School.

In our sophomore year our officers were: Ray Murphy, president; Paul Schultz, vice-president; and Joyce Dunn, secretary-treasurer.

When we became juniors, our duties and responsibilities greatly increased. We received our class rings and were very proud of them. The play, "Two Many Relatives" was a huge success. Our trip to Washington, D. C. along with the class of '49, was enjoyed by all. Our officers were: Paul Schultz, president; Mary Sayers, vice-president, and Joyce Dunn, secretary-treasurer.

This year, as seniors, we are working very hard to make graduation possible. The officers are: Lightel Whitaker, president; Zeenat Knapp, vice-president; and Marlene Torbet, secretary-treasurer. Our sponsors are Mr. Wiles and Mr. Minniear. The play, "Just Ducky", was presented. Our class sweaters were ordered and received.

CLASS HISTORY

When we enrolled as freshmen on September 2, 1947, we had twenty-two members. We elected the following officers: James Sayers, president; James Britt, vice-president; Violet DeYoung, secretary-treasurer. We passed our freshmen initiation with flying colors and became full fledged members of Fair Oaks High School.

We entered our sophomore year with seventeen members left to answer roll call. We elected the following officers: Carl Trump, president; James Sayers, vice-president; and Mary Smith, secretary-treasurer.

This year as juniors we have fifteen members to answer roll call. In our first class meeting, we elected the following officers: James Sayers, president; Ray Hammond, vice-president; Mary Smith, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Wiles is our class sponsor. As juniors we were thrilled to be able to wear our class rings and sweaters.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of '50, in sound mind, body and spirit, do hereby make and publish, this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

We do hereby will and bequeath to all concerned our most prized possessions, to wit:

PART I:

- TO THE SCHOOL-whose memories we will cherish in our hearts forever, we will our heartfelt regret that no longer shall we hear the sweet music of her bells; nor be able to increase the noise in her halls; nor try to decipher the peculiar markings on her desks.
- TO THE FRESHMEN-we will and bequeath our ambition to graduate.
- TO THE SOPHOMORES-we will and bequeath our ability to stick together as one individual.
- TO THE JUNIORS-we will and bequeath our ability to get along with the faculty.

PART II:

INDIVIDUALLY, WE BEQUEATH:

- I, Frances Bell, will and bequeath my height and talkativeness to Frances Albright.
- I, Rosemarie Bell, will and bequeath my ability to play the trombone to Patty Cover.
- I, Joyce Dunn, will and bequeath my figure to Jerry Brunton.
- I, Dorothy Gilmore, will and bequeath my ability to sing to Carl Schleman, and my ability to dance to "Buck" Shaw.
- I, Calvin Huffman, will and bequeath my innate tendency to sleep in the assembly to Ray Hammond, and my curly hair to "Ole" Myers.
- I, Edward Janosov, will and bequeath my sense of humor to Doyle Harrington, and my manly muscles to Harry Pass.
- I, Zeenat Knapp, will and bequeath the difficulty in spelling and pronouncing my name to Mary Smith.
- I, Joe Magee, will and bequeath my ability to get my grades and still have dates every night to Danny Sipkema.

- I, Fran Mattocks, will and bequeath my blond hair to Mr. Wiles to fill in his bald spots.
- I, Ray Murphy, will and bequeath my height to Eddie Cox, and my ability to play trumpet to Evelyn Dykhuisen.
- I, Joanne Myers, will and bequeath my dimples to Jim Peoples, and my freckles to Lora Mattocks.
- I, Pearl Myres, will and bequeath my girlish figure to Mary Ellen Crawford. (May she improve it!)
- I, Karl Patzschke, will and bequeath my ability to study to Willis Pettet.
- I, Mary Sayers, will and bequeath my ability to drive a car to Zeke Sayers.
- I, Rita Sayers, will and bequeath my ability to leave the boys alone to Betty Gilmore and Mary Lou Childers.
- I, Paul Schultz, will and bequeath my ability to play basketball to Tommy Cover, and my basketball suit to Eddie and Ronnie Cox, Jim Peoples, and Ray Mattocks.
- I, Marlene Torbet, will and bequeath my one and only hair style to Tommy Gilbert.
- I, Lightel Whitaker, will and bequeath my ability to be thin to Pat Harsha, and my height to Willis Yenna.

PART III:

WE, THE CLASS, WILL AND BEQUEATH:

To Mr. Minniear-a Government Class that reads "through" its lessons and not "over" its lessons.

To Mrs. Wiles-some safety pins to repair all the typewriters.

To Miss Burrus-all the gum in Fair Oaks High School. (Look underneath the seats!!)

To Mrs. Poucher-a bushel of beans for school lunches.

To Miss DeLor-a class that is quiet.

To Mr. Moore-some hard wood and some raw hide.

To Mr. Wiles-a winning basketball team.

To Mr. Ferris-a soprano for the Boys' Chorus.

To Mr. Sims-some army surplus.

In witness whereof, the Class of 1950, hereto subscribes its name and affixes its seal,
